During the first quarter, Judlin raced 60 yards, for a T.D. which was later called back on a penalty.

The second quarter saw a repetition. Judlin straked another 60 yd. but was again called back. This led to a later, 35 yd. jaunt that finally hit pay dirt.

Later, Genin fumbled on a quarter-back sneak, and O'Boyle scooped up the loose pigskin to run for the extra point.

Both teams were scoreless in the first frame. O'Boyle led a spirit attack in the second quarter with a keeper around end.

Johnny sprinted 52 yd. for a 6 point-er. The conversion was successful.

In the 4th quarter Slidell put on a power drive of 50 yd. which ended with a 15 yd. T.D. The extra point was successful again, which made the score 7 up.

VAN CLEAVE

For Queen Joy Peterson, it was not a very gleeful homecoming, but the players had sufficient reason to celebrate as they stomped Van Cleave 36-0 on a sloppy, muddy gridiron. The fans watched the massacre from their cars due to the driving rains. The usual ceremonies, including the bands of both schools, were forceably canceled.

Johnny O'Boyle again holding down the quarterback slot ran for two touchdowns and passed for anothe.

Al Jacobi started the scoring with a touchdown on a Bulldog fumble, Judlin crashed through the line for extra point.

In the second period, Pellegrini and Griffon tackled a Van Cleave back behind their goal which made the score 9-0, Rocks.

O'Boyle went through guard position from the Bulldog 10 to up the score another 6. Ganoway's kick was good. The half ended 16-0.

Larry Boudreaux, who was out for most of the season, opened the third quarter with a 16 yard. run, skirting around end. Ganoway's kick was again good.

Acree caught a touchdown pass from O'Boyle. Johnny then threw to Judlin for the PAT.

The second quarter found Notre Dame unable to penetrate the Stanislaus defense. Fourth down, the Rebs punted 35 yds. into the arms of John O'Boyle. He evaded a half dozen tacklers, and sprinted for pay dirt. Only the Rebel's safety man remained in his way but Ross threw the key block to make the scoreboard show Stanislaus ahead. Ganoway's kick was good 7-0, Rocks. The half ended 7 up.
